MORE THAN EXHIBITS: The Museum as a Place for Learning and Community

Join Us in a celebration of our successful fundraising in support of the museum's education programs and a special educational program by Lisa Quinn Tirado, M.F.A., Lillian S. Wells education curator.

This program will explore the educational art programs offered at the Museum and the Museum's approach to lifelong, intergenerational learning, community engagement and accessible arts education. Discover how the museum creates meaningful connections through art, while fostering curiosity, dialogue, and creative exploration for diverse audiences. Gain a greater insight into how "Friends" Fundraising support helps the Museum.
